Just Christians

You can be just a Christian also. Does this sound strange? With about 300 religious bodies in our country it might appear impossible to be a Christian without being part of a denomination. It is not only possible, but there are actually millions of “Christians only” in this and other communities.

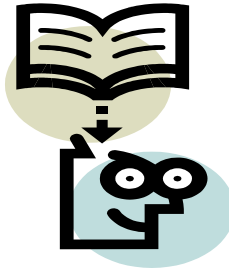

Just Christ’s Church

Who are these people who seek to be only Christians? The congregations of which we note here are known as the Church of Christ. This term is not used in a sectarian sense, but is intended to denote our desire to belong to Christ’s church. The Bible says, “The churches of Christ salute you” (Romans 16:16). Although there are other similar Biblical phrases to describe the church, they are meant not to be proper names, but descriptive expressions of how the church relates to Christ and his Father.

Individually, Christ’s followers are known as “Christians” in the Bible. “The disciples were called Christians first in Antioch” (Acts 11:26). “If a man suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God on this behalf” (I Peter 4:16). Never in the Bible does a human name prefix this God-given name. Paul was one of the great Christians, but he did not want disciples to be called “Paulites” or “Paulite Christians” (I Cor 1:10-17).

Just the Bible

Christians believe in the divine inspiration of the entire bible and that it is sufficient to guide us in all matters of faith. We also believe that the New Testament must be our ONLY guide in religious faith. Therefore, we have no creed or catechism to present, but accept Christ as our only creed and the Bible as our only guidebook. This way, we are always focused on accepting the truth that can be learned from God’s word.

Ask yourself these questions:

1. What do you think the Bible says is the greatest problem in the world?
2. What remedy does the Bible say God has provided for this great problem?
3. What role does Christ’s church play in this remedy?
4. Which church is Christ’s church?
5. Are you saved?
6. Are you interested in seeing how your religious experiences match up with the salvation mentioned in the Bible?

Just a Simple Mission

Northwest Church of Christ has been here in your community since 1971.

The goal of our each and every one of our ministries is to save souls and keep souls saved. A visit to the Northwest family will always result in a warm greeting and a demonstration of our sincere desire to serve your spiritual needs to the fullest extent that we possibly can.

Wonder just how useful we can be as your spiritual resource in the community? As Jesus said in John 1:46 “Come and See”.

We think you will find that we are indeed Caring Christians Committed to Christ’s Courageous Cause!
